

Engineer Lawrence Nkala is an accomplished Telecommunications professional with extensive and deep industry knowledge spanning over 28 years in Telco/ICT business strategy formulation & execution, network and digital transformation, Operations and Customer Service. He holds a BSc Honours degree in Electrical Engineering and a Master's degree in Business Administration (MBA).

Prior to this appointment Lawrence held the position of Director for Infrastructure & Wholesale responsible for providing strategic leadership in the delivery of infrastructure, technology and innovative solutions for the organization, championing and growing the Wholesale and Cloud services business.

Lawrence is a Chartered Engineer (CEng), a member of Zimbabwe Institution of Engineers (MZweIE) and the Institution of Engineering and Technology (MIET) of United Kingdom. He is a registered Engineer with the Engineering Council of Zimbabwe Pr(Eng) as well as the Engineering Council of United Kingdom.

Nkala's solid business leadership and management skills have seen him appointed to sit on a couple of Boards locally and offshore.